The Intro

Hey y'all, howdy! Brad and I have celebrated 26 birthdays apart, most likely in very different ways. O'Lord divine this make me emotional as we are actually twins truly separated at birth. Oh you don't believe me? Here are completely valid reasons why...

1. Brad and I were both born at hospitals in Northwest Florida on December 4th, 1992.
2. We were both born 2 weeks early which scientifically explains why our body shapes and faces are so different from each other.
3. We are both recovering sex addicts that dealt with our desires in very different ways.

Need I say more? So for our 27th birthday we finally decided to do it together, a joint celebration of life. Think 27 was an accidental choice? While most people overlook the BIG 27, here's why we think the number is actually very special:

- A. Eddie George<sup>2</sup>, one of the best looking bald running backs to ever play in the NFL, wore #27 on the field.
- B. The blockbuster rom-com 27 Dresses<sup>3</sup> featured a lonely New York hottie that had been a bridesmaid 27 times and against all odds defeated her sister at finding love.
- C. Approximately 27%<sup>4</sup> of the world is land.
- D. This guide is 27 pages long (nobody asked for this).

<sup>4</sup> Unfortunately this percentage will probably be inaccurate by the time you read this (global warming).

Pictured above: Eddie George looking bald on the field, Katherine Heigl posing in 1 of her 27 dresses, and a polar bear experiencing a fun day on land.

As Big Sexy and I enter our sacred 27th year on this earth we invite you to share this now or never moment with us. Please carefully read through the details below and join us on our journey after you carefully read through the details below.

Love y'all,

Bailey Motherfucking Frady ❤️🦂

TL;DR

Here is a concise summary of this full user guide. Please don't forget to sign at the end!

1. This is a celebration of Brad and Bailey's 27th birthday at a bathhouse.
2. Meet at Onsen (466 Eddy St.) Sunday December 8th 3:30PM PDT and we have the bathhouse until 5:30PM PDT.
  - a. Our bathhouse session starts at 3:45PM PDT.
  - b. Rented out the whole venue so no randos will be ruining our relaxation time.
3. Jack McRee (Chief Videographer) will be joining us to help create a short film (fundraiser): Behind the Scenes of a Bathhouse.
  - a. This has all been previously approved and cleared with Onsen.
  - b. See the Film Fundraiser section for more overall info about the movie and the Outfits/Costumes section for what to wear.

4. The total for the bathhouse will be ~$40 per person.<sup>5</sup>
5. Swimsuits are technically optional because we have the venue rented out, but please read through the Nudity section first if you think that's your calling.
6. PLEASE RSVP when you know, the bathhouse has a limited number of spots due to the venue size.
7. There will be prizes!
8. I've included a helpful starter pack if you are still confused.
9. This event has corporate sponsors, quotes, hashtags, and a dire need for playlist input.
10. Still have questions? Check out the Q&A section.
11. As always, this event is BYOBT.<sup>6</sup>

The Pitch

Are you ever sitting at your desk at work in the early afternoon feeling tired, stressed, horny, or most likely a combination of all three? As you finish that 4th cup of coffee you feel your Olive Garden unlimited soup, salad, and breadsticks lunch start to activate and wiggle throughout your body. You listen to this biological signal and quickly close all your Pornhub tabs as you exit towards the restroom thinking "I hope my favorite stall is available!". (It isn't), and then as you scramble in a panic to find another stall you conveniently choose one that is out of toilet paper. You don't realize this fun fact until the poop pups start dropping, causing you to improvise a wiping mechanism with that new jacket you just purchased at Forever 21. If you're like me, this is going to be your every-day reality. Until you discover Onsen.

Now a bathhouse did not cure my abnormal bowel movements, but it showed me a different path - one of relaxation, friendship, sweating, and showering. It allowed me to spill my deepest thoughts and secrets<sup>7</sup> to those in physical proximity to me as we shared times of laughter and perspiration. The joy it has brought inspired me to share it with all of you on a relaxing Sunday afternoon.

ALSO We're making a short marketing film that will act as a fundraiser<sup>8</sup> for bathhouses. Why a fundraiser you ask? Well, attending a bathhouse can be associated with an increase in physical, mental, emotional, social, spiritual, and potentially sexual<sup>9</sup> health. However, we have found that many Americans have no idea of the benefits brought on by the repeated cycle of sauna, steamroom, cold plunge, and hot tub. Doctor Richard Cheese, leader of the Boner Bathhouse Brothel Brotherhood, released this disturbing data in his latest blog post on boner-bathhouse-brothel-brotherhood.org (continues next page):

<sup>8</sup> Note: this fundraiser may not raise any funds.

<sup>9</sup> In our sample size of 1, this side effect was only true when the human subject ingested large doses of Viagra and Cocaine.

- A. In the latest poll with teens, 98.7% of them said they'd rather receive a free vape pen AND hotel room on prom night rather than a monthly bathhouse membership.<sup>10</sup>
- B. In our latest questionnaire with senior citizens, every subject said they would rather stay at the nursing home and have unprotected sex than come to a bathhouse session.<sup>11</sup>

This is a catastrophe. Not only are old ppl way too horny b/c of their baby boomer social security funds, but also nobody understands the proven benefits of bathing with your friends. The short film fundraiser Behind the Scenes of a Bathhouse will finally raise awareness once and for all. Dr. Dick Cheese might even feature us on his blog.

Quick Note (No Need To Read)

Hello, I am required to inform you that this fundraiser may technically be fundless. While this short video may in fact raise $0 for our cause of informing generations on the benefits of bathhouses, it still technically counts as a fundraiser based on this definition. I thank you for your participation in this event.

AMBER ALERT: ABDUCTED DILDO

We apologize for the interruption but we must inform you immediately about a special AMBER ALERT case, an innocent dildo was abducted! This dildo has been missing in action for approximately 4 months - hope is dwindling that it's still alive and well out there. Its family dearly misses it<sup>12</sup> and we beg for any information that you may have on its whereabouts.

<sup>10</sup> If you've got an extra room or an unfinished basement this really seems like a great opportunity to make a few extra bucks next spring.

<sup>11</sup> Boner Bathhouse Brothel Brotherhood does not cite any sources for data claims made on its blog.

<sup>12</sup> Seriously you have no idea how much we miss it, the bedroom hasn't been the same.

Perverts please come forward, there will be no guilt or shaming if you have been using it for the past few months<sup>13</sup>. The dildo in question would love to attend the Bonsai, Bollywood, Bathhouse event so we are praying for a magical reunion - seriously some key scenes depend on it. For more information on when the dildo went originally missing, please reach out to lead investigator on the case, Detective Trojan NYPD SVU.<sup>14</sup>

AMBER ALERT UPDATE

After months of searching the dildo has been found and rightfully restored to its home. The anonymous pervert guilty of the crime (PBW)<sup>15</sup> simply responded “no comment but fuck u” when asked why he would kidnap and torture an innocent dildo (a chunk was missing on the shaft). For his punishment I’ve emailed Good Vibrations (official sponsor) requesting that he get banned for life in all stores nationwide. He’ll never hurt a dildo again. The dildo is set to make its first public appearance since the kidnapping at Onsen.

The Film (Fundraiser)

If your wondering why this film is going to be made, please back up and check out the Pitch section. Now that you understand the urgent necessity of this film fundraiser, let’s get down to details. Most people wear a boring-ass<sup>16</sup> bathing suit to a bathhouse. Those same people have 401Ks, tons of family and friends surrounding them on their deathbed, and the current city/state they reside in their Instagram bio. WE ARE NOT THOSE PEOPLE. Keep reading to understand how we are going to take this cinematic event to the next level.

Outfits/Costumes

Wardrobe<sup>17</sup> is an ESSENTIAL element to any great film. Oh you don’t believe me? Let’s take a look at the classics then:

1. What would Edward Scissorhands have been without the scissor hands? Just Edward? Sounds a bit more dull in multiple ways.
2. What would Batman have been without his suit and mask? Just Bruce Wayne? Well technically I guess he’s still a billionaire.
3. What would Lara Croft: Tomb Raider have been without that form fitting but totally functional tank top, business booty shorts, utility first mid-thigh black straps, and long ponytail that doubles as a rope if you found yourself in a bind? Uh wait what were we talking about again.

<sup>14</sup> He can be reached by email day or night (usually late at night): nypd.svu@yahoo.com

So now you know that wardrobe in a film fundraiser matters. But what do I do with that new piece of information? Basically, if I have designed you a custom shirt, now is the time to wear it! If I haven't and you want one, reach out to Big Sexy directly<sup>18</sup> or browse his soon to be profitable online store.

Males

Speedos are HIGHLY ENCOURAGED at this event.<sup>21</sup> Chubbies are also very acceptable. If you don't own a speedo, and I'm very curious how you made it this far in life without one, head on down to my favorite speedo shop (above) and purchase that bad boy. I can vouch for the quality and color selection. Anonymous pro tip from an experienced speedo wearer, the white one's play pleasantly with dark pubes, and vice versa with the black ones and light pubes.

Little Boy Sunshine - if you're out there and reading I suggest you go for the bright yellow pair.

Ferrari - you beautiful thoroughbred, I suggest you choose the army green suit which will pair delightfully with your dark, delicious skin-tone.

Bri Guy - call me crazy but I think the blue pair will really bring out your baby blue eye-balls.

Drewby - for pretty known reasons I think any of the floral suits will fit your vibe.

Baconator - I say this with the utmost respect but we'd all be excited if you wore the white ones.

<sup>21</sup> Technically, normal swim trunks will work too, but again we are NOT those people.

I wanna throw another quick anonymous pro tip out there that you really shouldn't wear said purchased speedo near school zones. Can you imagine how sick a squad we're gonna have when everyone wears a different color speedo? They'll be calling us the Rainbow Rascals by the end.

Females

For all you Double-Xs coming we're strongly encouraging the multi-functional, cost effective, extremely classy outfit, bikini & heels (sweatpants/nipple tassles combo also works). This timeless classic will pair perfectly with the objective of our fundraiser film. Now because it's the bikini off-season I know a few amazing places where you can get a cheap bikini & heels set: Limited Too, Hot Topic<sup>22</sup>, and the backroom of Centerfolds in North Beach, San Francisco. If you want to go with the last option walk inside and ask the first girl you see for a "Doug Sigelbaum". They will quickly take you to the ATM, make you unload your whole checking account, and then lead you down a very long and dark hallway that will instantly fill your mind with regret for not going to Limited Too. At the end of the hallway you'll be put into a room, and then the nipple pinching lap dance begins (she pinches your nipples). After the service you paid for is completed, look over to your left and you'll see tons of extra heels, bikinis, and butt plugs lying around. While the exotic performer is resting, grab the items you need<sup>23</sup> and then get the heck out of there. Once you shower and confirm that you didn't contract an STD you've got the perfect set of bikini & heels for our film (fundraiser)!

Pictured above: Hot Topic in Wichita, Kansas. Not sure why I provided the location, they all look the same.

<sup>22</sup> In order for the deal to be valid it must be located inside a mall of some sort.

Somewhere In Between Male & Female

The official recommendation here is speedo & heels. Could not find an image for this.

Props

Beyond just having killer outfits we also need promiscuous props. Anything you got - condoms, batons, butt plugs, toilet paper, car batteries, vespa - doesn't matter it will all get used on camera. If you are questioning if it's necessary, IT IS. Confused about where to find a good prop though? You really can't go wrong if you are shopping at the Big

Three Props Conglomerate: Party City, Good Vibrations, and Bass Pro Shops (above). If your town doesn't have one of these amazing chains, then Michaels is also a great substitute. Don't worry about space - everyone will have a locker to store their items, and we have space in the bathhouse area to use it for certain scenes and then place down later for relaxation time.

Scenes

Larry David (below) once said:

"A film is only as good as the scenes that make it. Also women love a self-confident bald man."

Wow this got my blood flowing, what a guy! So, I am asking each of you to BRAINSTORM A SCENE YOU WANT TO DO. It doesn't have to be long, and if it's not inappropriate it will more than likely get cut, but if we crowdsource this we can really bring a storyline together that even makes Larry David proud. Now I already have a few of my own ideas but I'm very much willing to bend my Oscar worthy narrative if any of you are passionate about a specific scene. If not, we'll do it live and we can always fallback on nudity. That's just showbiz baby.

About The Videographer

Jackson "Jack" McRee (left) was born in Royston, Georgia to Matthew McRee and Jack's mom. A coloring standout at Royston Elementary, he was known to bully the Nickelodeon junkies into submission, vowing to make Royston the magical world he envisioned. "I am doing Walt's work on this playground, all for the greater good," Jack was quoted in 2001 during an interview with the Royston Panther Journal. Feeling undeterred, Jack strutted into Franklin County high school wearing strap-on Mickey Mouse ears and was known to beg fellow teens to attend "Remix" at Liberty Baptist Church until he graduated in 2012. By then, it was clear he would be a shoe-in at Sigma Chi (the illest frat).

That summer, Jack emptied his piggy bank and bought a hard copy limited edition Adobe Production Premium CS6. In between Derby Days and Disney internships, Jack produced award winning music videos, murder mystery psychological thrillers, wedding montages, and student government campaign promos. If you asked Jack at the time, he would have told you he was aspiring towards Sundance or Cannes. Little did he know, he was grooming himself to become one of Big Sexy's right-hand men. Now fresh out of prison, Jack is beyond excited to finally break into the pornographic/philanthropic short film industry by accepting the chief videographer role on the project, Behind the Scenes of a Bathhouse.

<sup>25</sup> You're about halfway through.

Nudity

(Big Sexy takes the typewriter from Bailey)

Hehe my favorite section. Let's talk about nudity. Because we are renting out the whole bathhouse, we have the fucking freedom to go suitless in the bathhouse area. However, as co-host of this bday banger and aspiring cotton shorts formal wear model, I want to publicly state that everyone should have a good time and feel comfortable at this event. Therefore, nudity will NOT be encouraged OUTSIDE of the ¡DANGER NUDITY! sections.<sup>26</sup> If you want a recommendation on proper suit attire, please see Outfit/Costumes section above.

Now you're probably thinking, how do I know if I'm in the ¡DANGER NUDITY! section of the bathhouse when filming is in progress?? Well I want you to know first of all that I hear you, and second that I've already come up with a fool proof solution for it. I've designed a custom, super-simple sign that will clearly indicate when you are about to enter a nude friendly zone<sup>27</sup>. Please see it below and memorize for your own safety.

<sup>27</sup> Note: these zones may frequently change location as different scenes of filming are in progress.

Nudity has been and always will be an essential part of Hollywood and the greater arts community. What's the last good film you saw that didn't include some sort of nudity? For me personally it's probably Spy Kids. So for that reason, the (nude) show must go on. Now for those of you joining me in the butt-ass naked scenes, I must quickly throw this short and boring disclaimer at you for complicated legal reasons:

Hello and thank you for your genuinely innocent interest in shooting a nude scene of the short film fundraiser: Behind the Scenes of a Bathhouse. I am excited for you to embark on this journey with me, but also YOU WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO USE A STUNT DOUBLE FOR THESE SCENES. All acts must come from your physical body. כל לא תורשה להשתמש בכפול כניסה לסצינות אלה. המעשים חייבים לבוא מגופכם הגופני. Also, please wash your hands before. Big Sexy does not take any accountability for whatever happens when the steam rises. Haha bitches.

WOW THAT WAS BORING BRING YOUR EYES HERE INSTEAD. Head below to receive expert nudity tips, from an expert.

Nudity Tips (from an expert)

First of all, I want to state that nudity is in fact a miracle. All bodies are beautiful. Now for the guys reading this, everytime I do a nude scene I always follow these 3 simple rules to set me up for success:

1. Don't be afraid to show;
2. Even better if you start to grow;
3. Regardless take time the night before to mow.

For the girls reading this, I do not have any personal advice for you on this subject<sup>29</sup>.

(Bailey takes the typewriter back from Big Sexy)

I do not approve of the section above, love y'all.

<sup>29</sup> I guess I could ask my mom or sisters about this if it would help.

<sup>30</sup> Head to the nearest bar and order a "Bill Cosby Special". Don't ask what's in it and as soon as the bartender hands you the drink close your eyes and pour all of it into your anus. Pay in cash. Head back to your apartment and keep reading this guide. It's probably for the best that you won't remember any of it. Oh also expect a severe headache the next morning. Once the headache wears off schedule the earliest available appointment with your primary care doctor. Don't mention this footnote to him or her.

Got A Little Ambitious

Got so hyped writing this guide I popped a Viagra, which then gave me a confidence boner<sup>31</sup>, which then propelled me to reach out to a celebrity and ask if they would guest star in our film fundraiser. Everybody loves a celebrity guest! Our confidential conversation has been screenshotted below.

Special Guest Commitment

<sup>31</sup> Also known as a "bold boner" on the streets.

Helpful Starter Pack

I know packing for an event like this can be stressful. I've included a starter pack below to get everyone on the right track so that this event can be safe and fun!

Bonsai, Bollywood, Bathhouse Starter Pack

Corporate Sponsors

I apologize about this interruption but I'm legally obligated to include this section. As soon as my porn/cotton-shorts-formal-wear-modeling career takes off I'll have enough cash to supplement this fundraiser on my own.

The Kevin Spacey Foundation (Statement made by Kevin's Agent/Lawyer, Klyde Spacey)

"I reached out to Bailey directly when I heard about this fundraiser as I think it's such a great cause. Having men, women, boys, and girls hanging out together in a bathhouse seems like the perfect bonding activity for Kevin! When I searched "onsen" on Wikipedia it appeared that most bathhouses give out free lotion and tissues, and that many of the areas are very dimly lit. This really seemed like a good opportunity for Kevin to [REDACTED] (this statement has been redacted). Kevin really is sorry about everything and he'll do absolutely anything to get back on camera, even though he doesn't have to because he's definitely innocent. Here's 15 bucks for the film."

The Michael Myers Blood Drive (Statement made by Michael himself)

(We must embarrassingly admit that none of his previous blood drive participants were volunteer donors. They were actually innocent victims of a crime committed by him. He's actually in jail right now but always seems to escape.<sup>32</sup> Nevertheless we took his blood money. No seriously, the $10 dollar bill had blood all over it, and he gave me the same comment as above.)

The Big Sexy T-Shirt Company (Statement made by the only employee, Big Sexy)

[Insert Image Here]

"I will make you a custom t-shirt, please let me! Seriously I need to feed my family, lauren loves the molten lava chocolate cake at Chili's. Also, if you take a look at the Prizes section you'll notice a raffle giveaway.<sup>33</sup> Well anyways, reach out day or night at elderly\_boy@yahoo.com for a custom cloth that fits any occasion. Or take a look at our current design selection right here."

<sup>32</sup> State prison security teams really should learn from their mistakes and strive to stop this, right?

<sup>33</sup> Hint Hint my company may be involved with that.

Women's Medallion Membership Lifestyle (Statement made by secretary, Kate Upton)

"Well hello ladies, how are you all feeling?! As our newest member Ali knows, my name is Kate Upton and I serve as secretary for the Women's Medallion Membership Lifestyle - a capitalist conglomerate (for-profit) focused on freeing women from stressful lifestyles. Voting? Stressful! Equal pay? Annoying! Driving? Eww! Giving your assigned husband head daily? Relaxing and fulfilling! We have so many more life principles that I would love to share with you at the bathhouse event, (we might also need you to sign some forms and hand over your car keys) so stop by our booth! Not quite sure that you want to pay our $50,000 a year membership fee<sup>34</sup>? No worries girl! But definitely check out our newest consumer product: Submit To Your Husband Skin Cream® inspired by Ephesians 5:22. It's so simple - after you cook a nice dinner (including dessert), do the dishes, and bartend your husband's Monday Night Football party, head to your bedroom and throw on your favorite bikini & heels set. Once your husband invites you to join him in the living room come on out with the skin cream and allow him to apply it all over your body, but don't be discouraged if he just wipes it on your boobies and butt (sometimes respectfully referred to as ass & titties)!"

Good Vibrations (Statement made by the CEO, Joani Blank)

"Your order of 99+ custom glow in the dark vibrators is now complete. Our vibrators are already water-proof as you requested but we had to specially develop fire-proofing materials over several months in order to make them fire-proof as well. Not sure why you need these to be fire-proof and the details alone of your order request already put you on an FBI watch list. We also added the turbo mode you requested which will be handy if your blender ever breaks. All vibrators were engraved with the last sentence written in the Harry Potter books series using our patented The Quote You Can Feel® technology. Although we were willing to complete your order this time, we must ask that you refrain from placing further orders. A lot of our staff have resigned while working on this particular order as they felt uncomfortable creating the specific shapes you requested. We haven't seen this kind of turnover at our company since our dildo line, Doggie Dix, was created."

UPDATE: Founder of Good Vibrations, Joani Blank, sadly passed away shortly after fulfilling our order for the bathhouse. It is rumored that the stress from creating these last vibrators might have killed her (autopsy never revealed). See this article for more details.

(MOMENT OF SILENCE FOR JOANI)

<sup>34</sup> Ask about our flexible financing plan that generously starts at 87% accrued loan interest.

Let It Flow LLC (Statement by lead activist, Elizabeth Warren)<sup>35</sup>

We are the Political Pussy Period Positivity (PPPP) Activist Group and we just want to say down with the D and up with the V! We directly oppose the Women's Medallion Membership Lifestyle, don't let Kate Upton's bodacious breasts and beautiful blonde hair distract you from their awful principles! Our goal is to have every woman achieve strong, confident menstruations. With our help your flow will soon be as heavy and healthy as the Niagara Falls. Hosting a party and accidentally bought vanilla cake batter instead of red velvet? Let it flow baby! Stop by our booth for more helpful tips and free samples of our newly released period cups (actually just red solo cups) that enable heavy flow volume. My name is Elizabeth Warren, I'm Native American, and I APPROVE THIS MESSAGE!

Enron Corporation (Statement by the former CEO, Ken Lay)

"Carpetbaggers ruined our reputation in 2001 which led to our downfall and dormant period...until NOW. Like Voldemort<sup>36</sup> and his death eater following we are growing stronger and will rise again. Look for our booth as we'll be handing out free calculators and green eyeshades to raise awareness that we're back on the books! Forget TurboTax or H&R Block come to us for your 2020 taxes, you won't regret the math we do this time."<sup>37</sup>

Dicks By [Blank] (Statement by Butt Chug Doug, Big Sexy, Big Chris, Golden ReTrevor, DJ Tim, and probably another white guy that I'm forgetting)

[Insert Image Here]

"Imagine a world where poverty doesn't exist. That's the future that Dicks By [Blank] provides. We are a Camera First, Mobile First, Dick Platform Conglomerate where we drop dildos by plane<sup>38</sup> into third world countries, where the citizens may or may not be warned. Each dildo contains 4 fluid ounces of water (if you squeeze really hard) which puts us below the legal limit for the TSA carry-on requirement.<sup>39</sup> Once you receive the dildo and then shake it hard enough for 8 seconds it ejaculates out a four digit pin<sup>40</sup> that you can use to login to our mobile app (Android only)<sup>41</sup>. After you jailbreak into our app the fun doesn't stop there! Dildos are your playground as you can send them as stickers, animate them in MMA fights, and obviously use them in dic pics as a substitute for your own sword. Anyways you gotta spend money to make money and don't bring sand to the beach."

<sup>35</sup> Originally we wanted the name We've Got Flow Fever but unfortunately that domain was already taken.

<sup>36</sup> Really shouldn't have used his name. Note to editor please replace with "He Who Must Not Be Named".

<sup>37</sup> You might find yourself in a few tax brackets higher than you would've thought or should be in, but that's just how our algorithm works.

<sup>38</sup> This technically allows us to claim "cloud solutions platform" in our marketing campaigns.

Viagra (Statement by celebrity consumer, Hugh Hefner)

"We really didn't want to sponsor this event but Big Sexy is such a loyal and quite consuming customer that we just couldn't afford to lose his business to Cialis (fuck those guys). Like the box says our product really gives you longer and super-lasting erections (patent pending), I guarantee it. Big Sexy has been emailing us constantly claiming that on our product he is able to last all night. We followed up with his wife lauren about the sex and she only used words like "average" and "all right". We recently got a new lead on a subject named Big Dick Bri that we would love to run a few experiments on while using our product.

Black & Milds (Statement by chain smoking co-host, Bailey)

(takes a really deep breath and then exhales a cloud of smoke into a random baby's face)

"You know what my favorite thing is to do after a long night of scorpioning (snogging them while they're blackout but somehow nobody sees) innocent young men? Opening up a pack of Black & Milds and smoking every last one of them while reflecting on my sexual sins. Every Black & Mild is made with love, joy, and kindness (also maybe some other chemicals that their corporate lawyers will not release), so that's why I ingest 2 packs a day. Now smoke one with me at the bathhouse and if you happen to have any innocent younger brothers please let me know! Love y'all."

Playlist Recommendations

One of the many perks we have at our bathhouse reservation is controlling the speaker system and projector so that's why I'm asking YOU for your help! My current YouTube playlist is below, if you have other songs you want to throw on there please reach out.

1. Soulja Boy [Screamo]<sup>45</sup>
2. Wonderwall
3. The Land Before Time Theme Song
4. [Anal] Hurts<sup>46</sup>
5. (This could be your favorite song!)

Q&A

Predicted many of your questions and have already answered them below.

Q: Do I need my passport?

A: Why not? But you do need a form of identification in order to secure a locker. You can see most of the rules here. However some of them do not apply to us b/c we're a private party.

Q: Are pets allowed?

A: No, but I called ahead and cleared Golden ReTrevor with the venue.

Q: Should I come hungry?

A: No food will be provided. The restaurant is nice but a bit expensive. DO NOT ORDER THE SOUP. I am almost positive that the broth is from the hot tub.

Q: Should I come horngry?

A: That's up to you, the steam will rise regardless.

Q: How did you get such a beautiful bonsai tree?

A: Lil B is juniper bonsai, around 25 years old. That's a teenager in bonsai years, so he's quite a handful. Caught him masturbating multiple times watching our neighbor's ficus being watered.

Q: Is this bathhouse naughty or nice?

A: Onsen is definitely nice. But we are making a naughty film. It'll make for a delightful mix.

<sup>46</sup> My own self-recorded spinoff of the popular hit Truth Hurts (Lizzo) that is the theme song for a 10-part documentary detailing the shocking decline of millennial participation in routine colonoscopy check-ups due to the fear of FITB (Finger In The Butt).

Q: Is this situation sober?

A: Well first of all it's on a Sunday. But no booze allowed in the bathhouse. Please prep beforehand if you think that will stimulate your acting abilities. But actually I don't recommend drinking alcohol before a bathhouse session. Pop narcotics as you wish. We will need some props for the drug scene anyways.

Q: Is there a restroom?

A: Yes, but get there before I do.

Q: Where's the clitoris?

A: ???

Q: Kill, Fuck, Marry: Jerry Sandusky, Ted Bundy, or Bill Cosby?

A: Fuck it, I'll take all three.

Q: What font is this guide using?

A: Arial, pervert.

Hashtags

My wedding didn't have a hashtag but my 27th birthday film fundraiser event will have several. They are listed below - use freely and don't worry if you start getting unusual targeted ads on Facebook and Instagram for breast milk or pressure washers:

#baileyandbradsbreastmilkbanginbdaybash

#bradandbaileysbreastmilkbanginbdaybash

#pressurewashmywonderwall

Potential Outcomes

Do you think logically (NERD)?! Is risk assessment important to you (VIRGIN)?? Say no more, I spent a couple all-nighters coding up a neural network the size of Bill Gates' brain that simulated every possible outcome of our film fundraiser event. I also used that software from Along Came Polly. See the results in the sick pie chart below<sup>48</sup>.

<sup>48</sup> If you are confused about any of the slices above I suggest you come up with a few questions and then directly confront the person about it at the event. Especially the olive green slice "Brian gets pegged".

Official Signature

This is without a doubt the most important section. Without your signature YOU CANNOT PARTICIPATE IN THIS FILM. Treat this just like all of the Apple TOS agreements and let your eyes quickly scan the page until you see the big red words, now shift them to the left slightly, close them (no questions!), and put your name down. Hurry!

(Skip this insanely boring section and go straight to the red font)

Hello and I want to sincerely thank you for reading this far. Now to the good stuff. By signing below, you agree to ALL the terms listed above in the user guide. Does that make you nervous? What about now? Google Docs lets me get even smaller actually. Well anyways, once you sign there's no going back. Bollywood owns all rights to the film and the scenes. If you don't like that just reach out to Big Sexy, we can work something out. Scenes can be cut at anytime from the final showing. Bad attitudes = bad scenes. Keep that in mind. You can show up drunk or sober, but not both. Do not discuss any politics in the bathhouse. That shit is boring. Only discuss relevant topics like drama in our friend group, which guy has the best package, and which girl has the "smartest" "brain".

If you're thinking this document was way too long for a meaningless bday event, 然後您就可以用割草機割下您的私人物品，回到裡面，再給這個嚮導一個機會。有人告訴我第二遍讀起來更好，而在後台沉迷於 Nathan For You。

If you try to use this document as a generic self-help guide you will end up in a worse spot than when you started. As always you can reach out to me or Big Sexy if any questions arise. When the steam rises...
